| AGH | 1 | 4a | Modd Laithe Farm Modd Laithe Farm is right at the top of Goose Green, near the old swimming pool, which still remains. The man who lives there is Benny Hollingsworth, he is 92 and has lived there for the last 85 years. The farmhouse lies within the boundary and is the only working farm in the conservation area. However the 10 acres of land lie outside the boundary. Benny fears it will go to housing development and would like to see it remain a farm. HE Comment:- The description suggests the farm may be substantially intact and unaltered. This makes it a potentially good candidate for a listing application. Any listing would focus only on the building(s), so the land outside the conservation area would not be significant. | | | 1800-1850 | |

| CLZ | 2 | 1a | Technical College The Technical Institute, a Victorian building, exhibits elaborate tall gables, steep roof with cupolas, tall elaborate windows letting in lots of light and fanlights over the doors. This building housed evening classes for apprentices from 1894 and became the first secondary school in Holmfirth between 1907 and 1932 with 48 pupils Notes from Holmfirth History Trail The building, at first known as the technical Institute, was built by public subscription and opened in 1894 providing technical and manual education outside the then existing elementary school system. Plans for the Institute date back to 1891 and the fundraising was initiated by James Marsden JP of Wigan and a native of Holmfirth who agreed to give £500 once the total had reached £3000. In the end £4456 pounds was raised and Mr Marston contributed £750. Youngsters attended in the evenings after completing their days work in the Mills. The college had rooms specifically for weaving, dying and clay modeling, science lectures, designing, art, reading, conservation and a secretary (on the ground floor) and chemistry laboratory, more art rooms and examination and lecture hall and the ladies room (on the upper floor). Following the education act of 1902 the newly established West Riding County Council assumed responsibility for the Institute which, until then, had been managed by volunteers and local businessman. From 1907 until 1932 the building provided accommodation for Holmfirth's first secondary school, although the technical classes still continued in the evenings. Pupils how to achieve a certain level of education and pay for the privilege of attending. Initially fees were 6 pounds per year, although some scholarships awarded. Inevitably some eligible pupils could not afford the fee and so gave up their places. In 1959 it became a further education centre on technical courses. The building is currently vacant. | Huddersfield Road | | 1851---1900 | Yes |
| CIS | 2 | 1a | Fire Station Notes from Holmfirth History Trail Holmfirth fire station was built in the late 1800s. Initially it was the single story building which housed one appliance (Fire engine) whose gable end is adjacent to Huddersfield road. An additional two large wooden sheds attached to the main building housed the second appliance and an ambulance. The Holmfirth urban district Council ran the station until 1939, when the National Fire service was formed and around all the county and district of our services. In 1954 the two detached wooden sheds which housed the second pump and appliance were demolished and replaced with the three bays adjoining the original station building. The ambulance was withdrawn but the two appliances remained. Both full-time and part-time personnel manned station. The watch room was manned 24 hours a day with a duty famine. At the present time there are 13 retained firefighters. | Huddersfield Road | | 1901---1938 | |

| CLY | 2 | 1a | Old Police Station Notes from Holmfirth History Trail This building which is an annex attached to the rear of the Technical College was originally Holmfirth police station. Built in 1857 at a cost of £1000, it had three cells and the house for the inspector. The force consisted of one inspector and eight constables. | Huddersfield Road | | 1851---1900 | |
| COA | 2 | 2a | Wagstaffs Notes from Holmfirth History Trail Wagstaff's is one of the select few businesses in Holmfirth to survive for well over a century. This boot and shoe business was situated at No.1 Towngate from late Victorian times. They transferred to their present shop at No. 29 Station Road in May 1921 as a result of the demolition of the Riverside buildings to widen Towngate. | 29 Station Road | | 1851---1900 | |
| CTO 2 | 4 | 1b | Drill Hall Notes from Holmfirth History Trail The building of the Drill Hall, opened in 1892, was the result of the decision taken in May 1884 that there was a priority requirement for a new purpose-built drill hall in the town. Prior to this the National school and then the Druids Hall had been used for drill exercises. The E company 2nd Volunteer Battalion West Riding Regiment, established in 1860 was growing in size and needed a bigger premises. The site acquired for this Tudor style building was land adjacent to the town hall (Opened in 1842). The premises including a spacious hall, too large anti rooms, armoury, band room, orderly room and sergeants mess. It was financed by public subscription and the building was used as a place for educational meetings, entertainments and social gatherings. What is seen today is the combined Town Hall and the Drill Hall which became the Holme Valley Civic Hall in 1947. In the entrance is the memorial to some of those who served in South African (Boer) War, 1899-1902 | Huddersfield Road | | 1851---1900 | Yes |

| CCY CCZ | 5 | 1a | Toll House/ Fairtrade 32 Notes from Holmfirth History Trail The present building dates from around 1870, replacing a previous toll house on or near the same site. The Tollhouse lay on the Shipley Lane head to Greenfield Turnpike, evidence of it still existing in the form of the mileage plate on the parapet of the nearby bridge. In 1875 the trustees discontinued the Turnpike and in 1876 sold the building. The building has been a wine and spirits outlet, butchers shop, off-licence, café, bookshop and, currently a fair trade shop. | Woodhead Road | K4 | 1851---1900 | Yes |

| AEE | 6 | 2a | Druids Hall (Masonic Hall) Notes from Holmfirth History Trail The Druids Hall dates back to 1846. It cost over £2000 to build. It was the premises of the Holmfirth Branch of the Ancient Order of Druids Friendly Society, an organization offering financial help and security to the poor. They paid funeral expenses for example. The Druids was one of a number of friendly societies that were quite common in the 19th century. In 1851 590 Druids were recorded in the Holmfirth/will dale area. Apart from the Druids the hall was used for other functions including a staff dinner of the workers at Albert Mills in 1884. By the beginning of the 20th century the Friendly Society movement was in decline and membership had fallen drastically. In 1906 the remaining membership decided to offer the building for sale at public auction and it took on a new existence as a hotel and a fully licensed public house with brew house attached. It continued in this form until 1917 when the local Masonic Lodge, in need of larger premises, purchased the Druids Hall for some £700. The Druids Hall, now known as the Masonic all, has been home of the home Valley launch number 652 five two since 1921. | Station Road | | 1800---1850 | Yes |
| ALQ ALP | 6 | 3a | Bamforth's Notes from Holmfirth History Trail Bamforth's was established in 1870, and by the end of that century James Bamforth was well-known in Holmfirth as a photographer and artist. In the 1890s the magic lantern was a popular form of entertainment and Bamforth produced slides of these lantern shows. Bamforth was also a producer of postcards and was in at the very beginning of the silent movie era, creating short comic films in the Hollywood style comic but using Holmfirth as the background and local people as the stars and actors in his films. At the outbreak of the First World War film making came to an end. However the production of picture postcards continued and was a lucrative market opened up by Bamforth particularly of the saucy seaside postcards with their "near the knuckle" double entendres. The building has a very long window on the upper floor to provide extra studio light. The Bamforth business closed in 19?? And the building came into a sorry state of neglect. In 2016 renovation work was started on the building which will be converted into apartments??? | Station Road | K5 | 1800---1850 | Yes |
